FREE CLASSES FOR ACTIVE OLDER ADULTS

Readers' Theatre with Gail Dartez

Participants will interpret and perform roles reading from a script, creating these roles mainly through voice. Readers' theatre has been a legitimate form of theatre for decades. Like storytelling, and with no set or special effects, readers' theatre can invoke images and create worlds. Marvelous journeys can be enacted. No memorization required! Actors use a script at all times. Minimal costumes and/or props may be incorporated. Each class will include basic warm ups and theatre games and exercises, as well as work with scripts. Join us anytime!

Starting May 24 for 8 Mondays, 10:00-11:00am
