SACRAMENTO METROPOLITAN ARTS COMMISSION PARTICIPATES IN EDIBLE WALKING TOUR TO RAISE FUND FOR THE ARTS—“EAT YOUR ART OUT”

Sacramento, CA--The Sacramento food and arts scene will participate in a unique fundraiser on Saturday, September 26th from 12 noon to 5:00 p.m. in downtown Sacramento. The Edible Walking Tour—“Eat Your Art Out,” offers attendees the opportunity to support the arts by eating and drinking their way through Sacramento’s downtown gourmet district.

The Edible Walking Tour is the brain child of Event’ually, an event planning group located in midtown Sacramento and here’s how it works: Guests pay only $35 to attend this food and pub crawl which takes them through a multitude of primarily independently owned downtown restaurants and coffee houses. Each location pairs samples of food and drink for the guests and several Sacramento arts groups will be providing entertainment at select locations. Attendees are guided through the restaurant tour by “Crawl Captains” who take them to the carefully mapped-out routes.

Funds raised at this event will be donated to the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission (SMAC) for distribution to local arts groups through various grant programs. For more information on SMAC, please log onto www.sacmetroarts.org.

Tickets for “Eat Your Art Out” may be purchased online at www.crawltix.com for just $35 per person. Anyone may become a Crawl Captain by registering online and bringing together 10 guests for the Edible Walking Tour. Crawl Captains attend the event for free.
